County Executive and Administration to Bring 2020 State of the County to Towns and Villages

(BINGHAMTON, NY) Broome County Executive Jason Garnar is once again bringing his State of the County to municipalities. As with his 2020 State of the County, County Executive Garnar's administration is continuing the tradition of taking public addresses into the community, to the residents of Broome County.

In February County Executive Jason Garnar delivered his 2020 State of the County at the new Broome County Workforce Development Center in Johnson City. The theme for Garnar's address was "Broome Works."

Highlights of Garnar's address included Broome County Workforce Development, Fixing Broome County's Finances and Public Safety Highlights. The County Executive also highlighted more than 100 initiatives he has launched since taking office in 2017.
