

Hazardous Waste & Electronics Materials NOT Accepted

Radioactive materials, smoke detectors
Medical or infectious waste
Explosives and shock sensitive materials (picric acid)
Compressed gas cylinders
Counter top appliances, telephones, answering machines and vacuums

Disposal Options

Smoke Detectors

Wrap in newspaper, double bag and place in with your regular trash.

Medical Waste

Home medical waste can be safely disposed of in household trash.
Call 607.778.2250 for a free brochure on proper disposal procedures, or Click here for a free medical waste brochure.
Please do not bring medical waste to the Collection Facility.

Gas Cylinders

May be brought to:
Warner's Gas Service (607.748.3989) and
Pro Gas Welding Supply (607.754.1111)
Call for details.

Counter Top Appliances

May be placed in with the regular trash.

Explosives

Contact the local police department for assistance.

Shock Sensitive Materials

Contact a hazardous waste vendor.