

Tool Box Tip #2 PARENTING TIPS FOR FATHERS

Fathers, you have a special place in your children's lives. Children whose fathers take an active part in their daily lives tend to be better adjusted and better equipped for success. It's not easy being a father, but a father is as important as the mother. Your roles may not always be the same, but your interest in your children can make a big difference. Be proud of your responsibilities and your efforts. Children don't need perfect fathers - they need caring and involved fathers.

SHOW THAT YOU CARE

- Give your children hugs and kisses often; children need physical comfort and contact from their fathers.
- Tell them how much they mean to you, "You're really important to me."
- Praise their efforts, especially if they don't succeed; teach them the importance of doing their best and learning from the experience.

GIVE GUIDELINES FOR CONDUCT

- Give your children rules and make sure your rules are clear to them; don't say 'maybe' when you mean 'no.'
- Explain your rules; it's important that children understand why they need to follow those rules.
- Be consistent with your rules; children get confused when you seem to change your mind without any reason.
- Use positive discipline to help children develop self-control; set limits and encourage children to feel good about themselves.

COMMUNICATE WITH CARE

- Look directly at your children when they talk to you.
- Gain your children's trust by listening to them when they come to you with a problem or need information. Children will welcome your guidance, but are not likely to listen to lectures.
- Be honest with your children; admit your mistakes and teach your children the importance of taking responsibility and making amends.

BE YOUR CHILDREN'S EDUCATOR

- Tell your children that they can come to you with any questions; otherwise they may receive inappropriate answers from other people.
- Remember that you are your children's role model; they are looking to you to learn how to develop self-control and be respectful.
- Do household chores with your children; make them feel good about helping and teach them that family members share household duties.
- Encourage your children to think for themselves; guide and help them with their decision making process, so they learn to make safe and healthy choices.
