Hospital/Long Term Care (Committee Updates)

Ray Serowick:

- Health Care is under tremendous amount of stress due to the bed and staff shortages
- Patients are not able to be discharged from the hospital to a long-term care facility due to them being full. Which is causing less beds for other patients in the hospitals.
- EMS are staging at the hospital for a much longer time due to not having a bed for their patient they are dropping off.

Ron Patti:

- Limited Staffing in all departments in the Long-Term Care Facilities
- Dealing with State/Federal Mandates of the Vaccine
- Very Limited Bed Availability
- Completing Rapid Tests in Residents before they go to the ER to help the process when they get there
- Trying to limit the ER visits so residents don't leave the facility and bring back the virus
